

Industrial Networking – The latest innovations and developments will be presented in key areas of industrial networking, including wireless applications, industrial Ethernet, fieldbus applications, RFID for automation, OPC, and motion control.