

Process Automation – Stay ahead of the curve by learning about new and developing technologies and applications including next-generation manufacturing technology, advanced control, wireless sensors, sensors for safety instrumented systems, the Make2Pack initiative, and ISA-88 batch control overview and implementation. Additional presentations will cover machine control (OMAC), validation, regulatory control, optimization, multiphase flow measurement, interface level measurement, and asset protection instrumentation.