

Systems Integration -- Effectively managing both people and technology is key in achieving successful systems integration programs. Topics highlighted in this track include migration planning, industrial IT infrastructure upgrade, network topology methods, business system enterprise and integration, and engineering productivity tools. Also covered will be global work sharing and offshoring, vendor solution partnering, selecting control system integrators, and best practices/effective project management.