

IAU2M8.09

The Automation Federation (AF) invites middle and high school science and math students, teachers, administrators, and chaperones of the Houston Independent School District (HISD) to celebrate Automation Week at our iAU2M8.09 event!

WHEN: Thursday, 8 October 2009

WHERE: ISA EXPO, Reliant Center, 1 Reliant Park,
Houston, Texas

WHAT IS iAU2M8.09?

iAU2M8.09 is a unique activity that takes place during at ISA Expo 2009, an Automation Week event. It's an educational experience designed to open the eyes of middle and high school students in the Houston Independent School District (HISD) to the world of automation through various activities.

HISD students can participate in the following activities at iAU2M8.09:

- Keynote presentation on the importance of a fun and exciting career in a field of Automation
- Live, interactive, educational displays and demonstrations
- Guided tours of the ISA EXPO show floor (nearly 300 exhibitors), featuring Automation products and how they apply to the real-world of Automation, and more

Schools in the HISD that want to participate in iAU2M8.09 should contact Tisha Sinnette (contact information is on the form below) by 28 August 2009 with the information listed on the form below to save their spots at our upcoming event!

We're excited to once again have HISD participate in our iAU2M8.09 event. Together, we'll open the doors to the world of Automation for your students!
