2009 Apr 19-22 Meet at AD Symposium

Place: Marriott Hotel Hobby Airport

9100 Gulf Freeway, Houston, 713-943-7979

There are lunches each day at the Marriott Hotel Hobby Airport for a cost of $20 per meal on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. A buffet will be offered on Sunday and Monday nights when the Hospitality Suites are open. Tuesday night is the Banquet and is $40 per person.

A time to meet and congregate for the Analysis Subsection can be on any of the days and the Analysis Division business meeting is on Sunday at 5:30 PM. We can also participate in the evenings at the Hospitality Suites.

Program highlights include:

- Volunteer-led training course: Introduction To Process Analyzers on 19 April
- NEW! Volunteer-led training course: Advanced Course on Chemometrics on 19 April
- Overview of Industrial Wireless Technology \(IC85C\) training course on 23 April
- Vendor hospitality suites
- Over 30 presentations will take place, including:
 - Integrated Analysis and Control to Enhance Clean Fuels Production
 - Oxygen and Combustibles Analyzers in Safety Instrumented Systems
 - Using In-line pH Measurements for Improved Process Control of Scrubbers
 - Process Analyzer Marketplace
 - Process Gas Analyzer for the Measurement of Water and Carbon Dioxide Concentration
 - Process Mass Spectrometer Development Using Advanced Software Tools
 - Gas Analyzers Based on Tuneable Diode Laser Spectroscopy
 - A Comparative Analysis of the Errors in the Measurement of Oxygen Between In Situ and Extractive Methods
 - Process Analyzer for Clean Coal Applications
 - Applications of a Dielectric Barrier Discharge Ionization Detector in a Process Gas Chromatograph
 - The Devil is in the Details: "Understanding the Impact of Your Design Selection on the Flow Behavior in a Modular Liquid Sampling System"
- Social functions Sunday-Wednesday evenings
- And more
