A Message From.... YOUR PRESIDENT

In June, ISA held its first-ever western regional ISA conference and exhibit in Las Vegas. With over 1200+ attendees and 80+ vendors this show had good attendance for its maiden voyage. The training classes were very well attended. There were large number of folks from California, Nevada, Arizona and some as far away as Washington and Puerto Rico. The 105 degree weather or even the brush fire over the Cajon Pass could not keep die hard Southern Californians from attending the exhibits.

Under the leadership of John Querido, ISA District 11 held its leadership conference. Board members from various sections in Arizona and California attended the show. The “Fish” video about a bustling fish market in Seattle set the stage and provided the motivation for the rest of the day. The annual district conference is a good forum for the board members to learn dos and don'ts of successfully operating an ISA section. Anybody interested in playing an active role within the ISA section should certainly consider attending the leadership conference. The exchange of ideas between sections is immensely powerful.

Have you visited the ISA.org site recently? This recently revamped site has simplified the navigation through the site. While you are visiting, I urge you to take time to verify or update your individual profile, especially the e-mail and mailing address. It is summer and even your local ISA section is getting into the swing. In lieu of our monthly meeting, we have planned a “Picnic by the Beach”, Southern California style! Please RSVP and bring your family for a great outing.

ISA Orange County President—Raj Adani
