A Message From.... YOUR PRESIDENT

Goodbye hotdogs and barbecues! Goodbye hazy, lazy days of summer!

Even though it may seem like summer, your ISA section is already planning its annual Christmas party, which has been a marquee event for the past decade. Mark your calendars—Saturday, December 7, 2002 in the ballroom at Long Beach Petroleum Club. The grand ballroom, sumptuous dinner accompanied by a DJ blasting away at Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer. Combine all this with friends from the industry and it becomes a recipe for one intoxicating evening.

Like previous years, we are looking for sponsors for the Christmas party. A table of 8 or table of 10 is available for sponsorship. The cost varies between $250-$400. Many companies sponsor the table along with door prizes. Many companies or individuals can also sponsor just the door prize. Here is a thought—Companies holding their annual Christmas party by sponsoring one or multiple tables at the ISA party. Presidents and CEO's—you will not be able to find as cost effective and rewarding a party. For additional information on sponsorship, please contact Bis Mitra or myself.

By this time, most of the personnel and organizations participating at the National ISA Conference and Exhibits in Chicago (October 21st-24) should have already started making plans to attend. Our annual planning meeting and brainstorming session last month resulted in some unique topics for our monthly meetings and educational seminars including some un-conventional topics like—ISA at the Improv and CEO roundtable. Stay tuned !

Have you ever thought about the value of your ISA membership? Let us compare notes next month!

Raj Adani
