Meeting Topic

Challenges to PSM Compliance Process Safety Management

Mr. Nigel James will discuss the challenges to PSM compliance specifically to the ISA Standard for Safety Instrumented Systems (S-84) and Recognized and Generally Accepted Good Engineering Practices (RAGAGEP).

He will also recommend some best practices for Safety Lifecycle Management (SLM) execution.

Nigel James is the President of Burrow Global Automation. Burrow Global is a $170MM, EPC Company in the Petrochemical and Refinery industries. The Automation Division has offices in Houston, Deer Park, Beaumont, and Baton Rouge. They specialize in DCS migrations, SIS and SLM implementation, and Midstream automation projects.

He received his degree in Chemical Engineering from University of Texas - Austin in 1986. Nigel worked in the refinery industry for eight years with Fina now Total in Big Spring Texas and three years in Grimsby England.

He went into the Automation industry in 1995. He founded James Consulting Co. in 1999 that was bought and merged into Mangan in 2002. He served as President of Mangan from 2005–2006; President of the Gulf Coast division from 2007-2012 and retired from Mangan in November 2012.

Nigel is married to Molly for 24 years, has five children and when he is not working is very active in soccer, camping, waterfowl hunting, and Catholic schools. He is the V.P. of the Archdiocesan School Council for Galveston/Houston. He is an Eagle Scout.
